

Dr. Eric Holland

Dr. Eric Holland, an educator with 23 years of experience, is the newly appointed Superintendent of Rome City Schools. Immediately before his appointment, he served as principal of Rome High School in Rome, GA, and Marietta High School in Marietta, GA. Dr. Holland previously worked as an administrator with Tift County High School in Tifton, GA, and was once named Teacher of the Year at Crossroads Academy in Americus.

He holds a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in education, both from Georgia Southwestern State University. He earned his doctorate in leadership in educational administration from Capella University. Dr. Holland also holds multiple educational specialist degrees from the University of Georgia, Capella University, and Albany State University.

He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.